CLAIRVOYANT BETTER DETECTIVE THAN POLICE.

Several nights ago an automobile belonging to J. L. Watson, of Paris, was stolen from near the Paris Grand Opera House, where it had been parked while Mr. Watkins was attending the movies. On the same night the Harry Simon department store was robbed of a large quantity of valuable goods. It was thought the same thieves had worked both jobs.

All efforts to locate the missing machine by the police proved unavailing, though the search never relaxed. In despair, and much against his better judgment Mr. Watson visited a Lexington clairvoyant. Without making mention of the real object of his visit, Mr. Watson told the woman he desired to "have his fortune told." She related to him various events in his past life, including death of relatives, some of his business transactions. She informed him that very recently someone had stolen his automobile. Advising him to stop worrying over the loss, she told him to return home, and that he would find his machine on a side street near his home. Mr. Watson followed her instructions, and the next morning found his car parked on Twelfth street.

It gave evidence of having been extensively used, and was about out of gasoline, having been abandoned on that account. The car was not damaged in any way during its absence. The clairvoyant will get the reward offered by Mr. Mr. Watkins for information leading to recovery of his machine.

HELD TO GRAND JURY

Henry Hughes, a Cincinnati negro, who was arrested in Paris by Patrolman Lusk for having too much liquor in his possession, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Charles N. Wiard, in Lexington, Friday. Hughes stated that he came to Paris on a fishing trip, and that the four quarts of whiskey he had at the time of his arrest was intended solely for his own use on the trip. His plea was not convincing enough to secure his release. He was held to the Federal Grand Jury in $500 bond. Failing to furnish this he was turned over to the custody of the Fayette county jailer. The trial was held in the office of Chief Probation Agent Paul M. Williams, in the Federal Building, in Lexington.

ARRANGING FOR THE SHROPSHIRE REUNION.

The Shropshire family reunion will be held according to the annual custom, the first Sunday in August at the old family residence in Harrison county. It is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henderson Shropshire.

To arrange for the details of the reunion Mrs. Earl F. Shropshire entertained with an informal afternoon reception for the ladies of the family at her home on East Main street, in Lexington.

The guests came from Lexington, Fayette county, Harrison, Bourbon and Scott counties and numbered about forty.

The decorations were of a variety of summer flowers and delicious ices, cakes and bonbons were served. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Lily Weathers.

Arrangements were planned for making the annual reunion an even more interesting and delightful affair than those which have given so much pleasure to this large and prosperous family in previous years.

There were eight sons of the old home in Harrison county and their children and grandchildren make up the family list who will attend the reunion.

TRUCK DRIVER SUSTAINS SERIOUS INJURIES.

While helping to unload sacked wheat at the Paris Milling Co.'s plant Saturday afternoon, Frank Crowder, truck driver for the M. J. Murphy Transfer Co., met with an accident that will probably result in the loss of his right arm.

With a sack of wheat on his shoulder he lost his balance, falling through a window. His entire weight fell on his right arm, forcing it on the jagged edges of the broken glass. The arm was frightfully lacerated, several arteries being severed. Engineer Jefferson and Henry Shout came to the injured man's aid. He was placed in an automobile and rushed to the office of Drs. Daugherty & Orr, where his wounds were dressed. He was removed to his home on Lillieston avenue.

MONTGOMERY FAIR ENDS AFTER RECORD MEETING

The Montgomery County Fair closed at Mt. Sterling, Saturday, after the most successful meeting in its history. The weather was ideal throughout the week and record-breaking crowds have been in attendance. The racing program offered each day attracted many lovers of the sport to the fair. The Floral Hall has claimed its share of attention, the exhibits being better and more numerous than ever before.

OFFICIALS SEARCHING FOR PARIS WOMAN'S ASSAILANT

The identity of the white man who attempted an assault on Mrs. George Insko, Jr., last Friday afternoon, and earlier in the day, seized a young white girl residing on Lillieston avenue, is now said to be known to the authorities, who are making a search for him.

Mrs. Insko, who resides on lower Main street, was walking on the foot bridge spanning Houston creek, at the foot of Main street, under the L. & N. tracks, Friday afternoon, carrying her eighteen-month-old child. As she approached the bridge near the county jail, a man whom she described as being white, about the age of thirty, dressed in a Palm Beach suit and wearing a Panama hat, accosted her. He made an insulting and indecent proposal, and when Mrs. Insko resented it, seized her roughly by the arm and whirled her around toward him. Mrs. Insko screamed, her cries attracting the attention of Mrs. Thos. Taul, wife of the jailer, who was sitting on the porch only a few yards from the vicinity.

Hearing this the man turned and ran across the bridge, out the railroad track, and disappeared along the bank of the creek. Chief of Police Link, Patrolman Lusk, Deputy Sheriff J. O. Marshall, Gibson and Gilkey were summoned, and immediately instituted a search of the locality, but the man had made his escape, and could not be located. It was stated yesterday that the man whom the authorities have under suspicion is mentally unsound, and that these are not his first offenses, as other instances have been reported. He has always managed to elude capture, but from the information the authorities had yesterday his arrest may be expected in a short time.

MASSIE HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Elizabeth Snapp, Superintendent, is spending her vacation with relatives and friends in Cynthiana and Harrison county. In her absence the Hospital is in charge of Miss Rowland, graduate nurse.

Mrs. Ollie Gray, of Glenkenney, near Paris, is a patient at the institution, where she recently underwent a serious surgical operation. She is improving.

Miss Lida Medlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Medlin, of near Paris, who underwent an operation at the Hospital last week for appendicitis, is reported as being greatly improved.

The Hospital is still ready and willing to receive donations for the pantry and larder. Vegetables and delicacies for the sick are especially welcome. Donations can be sent direct to the Hospital, or left at some place where they will be called for.

Visitors from adjoining towns, who have recently visited the Massie Hospital, says it is one of the most complete and best-arranged institutions of the kind in the State.

K. OF P.'S HAVE OUTING

About one hundred and twenty-five persons, members of the local Knights of Pythias lodges, their friends and others, attended the annual outing held at the Pythian Home, in Lexington, Sunday. The trip was made in a special car over the Paris-Lexington interurban line, leaving Paris at 9:30 Sunday morning. Many made the trip in their automobiles.

The day was spent in pleasure-seeking about the grounds, and in games of various kinds. At noon a bountiful basket dinner was served on the wide lawn at the Pythian Home. The Girls' Orchestra of the Pythian Home contributed a pleasing program of musical selections, and readings by Miss Mitchell helped to make the occasion a most enjoyable one. From his sickbed at the Home, Col. Robert Slade, the genial Superintendent, sent his personal greetings and gave orders that the grounds and everything about the Home should belong to the visitors for the day. The Knights and their friends took full advantage of the kindly offer and made themselves perfectly at home for the day.

NEW SWINDLING SCHEME

THE NEWS desires to warn the people of Paris and Bourbon county of a new form of confidence game that is being worked by smooth-talking swindlers through Kentucky.

Two strangers, pretending to be representatives of a well-known sanitarium, show up in a neighborhood, learn the names of the sick, and eventually make visits in which they assure the family of the invalid that the health of the afflicted person may be restored through their method of treatment. After payment is secured and worthless prescriptions and directions for treatment of the sick person given in exchange, the "doctors" leave for fresh fields, and nothing more is heard of them.

GROOM SEEKS LEGAL AID FOR POSSESSION OF WIFE

For the first time, probably, in the history of the local Court, habeas corpus proceedings have been resorted to by a groom to gain possession of his wife. This proceeding took place in the County Court yesterday when legal action was brought, before Judge Battered by Melton Hornback, of Paris, to gain possession of his bride, recently Miss Zuma Meade, to whom he was married in Cynthiana, last week.

The bride's parents were opposed to the marriage, on account of the girl's youth, but the lovers eluded them, and motored with a party of friends to Cynthiana, where they were married. Returning to this city, the bride and her mother left for a short visit to relatives in Muncie, Indiana. On their return, learning of the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Meade, it was alleged, refused to let young Hornback see his bride, and the habeas corpus proceedings were resorted to. In Court County Attorney Cline asked the bride's wishes, and upon being informed that while she loved her parents, she wanted her hubby, the Court directed that Mr. Hornback be given possession. There was a joyful reunion of the distressed newly-weds in the County Attorney's office, after which they departed, accompanied by the blessings and congratulations of a large number of friends, who had gathered to hear the outcome of the affair.

BOURBON GUN CLUB HOLDS TOURNAMENT

The Bourbon Gun Club held their shoot on the Club grounds last Friday. The main feature, was the shoot-off of the tie in the F. B. Hillis Trophy, which was contested for by club members on July 16. FORMER PARISIAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Ben Scanlan, formerly in the employ of The Cumberland Telephone Co., in this city, now "trouble man" for the Stanford exchange, had a narrow escape from electrocution in that city last week.

Scanlan was working with a telephone wire on a pole, when he came in contact with a high tension electric wire having direct connection with the power house. The insulation had worn off the wire, Scanlan receiving a severe shock. He had presence of mind enough to cling to the pole until released by fellow workmen. He was removed to his home where examination showed he was not seriously injured. His hands were burned slightly by the current.

REFUSES TO ALLOW INSURANCE INCREASES

The Workmen's Compensation Board in session at Frankfort, refused to allow insurance companies to increase rates. The basic rate for compensation is $3.65, and the companies desired to increase the rate to $3.97. Arguments used in behalf of the increase were that the new law increased the maximum from $100 to $200 and that the weekly compensation had been increased.

BECKHAM TO SELECT DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN MANAGER

Senator J. C. W. Beckham, candidate for re-election, will dictate the selections of the Democratic campaign manager in Kentucky for this fall's election. Not only will the man chosen to direct the fight be entirely acceptable to Senator Beckham, but he will also largely represent the Senator's personal choosing.

These facts developed following Senator Beckham's return to Louisville, after a trip to Columbus, O., where he conferred with Governor Cox, Democratic Presidential nominee, as to choice of a leader for the fight in this State.

From sources close to Senator Beckham it was learned that Governor Cox at the conference assured the Senator he was willing to leave the fight in this State entirely in his hands and that any campaign manager he saw fit to name would be agreeable to the Presidential nominee. Thus did Governor Cox commit the party interests to Senator Beckham, and also full responsibility for the race in the State this year.

DEMENTED MAN TERRORIZES COMMUNITY.

Chief of Police Link was summoned Saturday night by a hurry-up telephone call to a house on the Bethlehem pike, where a demented man was terrorizing the household.

The man, who gave his name as John R. Smith, of Williamstown, called at the house Saturday afternoon and asked for work. He was put to work and seemed very well satisfied. Saturday night after retiring to the room which had been assigned him, he became very noisy and complained of his surrounding as unsatisfactory. He was finally ejected from the house. Securing a pitchfork from the stable near by he mounted guard near the front door and threatened the occupants of the home with physical harm, accompanying the threats with wild muttering.

Chief Link disarmed the man, placed him in his machine and brought him to Paris, where he was held in the Paris jail for safe-keeping.

GREGG'S ORCHESTRA DELIGHTS WITH LEXINGTON CONCERT

Gregg's Orchestra, playing at the Paris movie houses, augmented by the addition of several Lexington musicians delighted a large crowd at Woodland Park, in Lexington, and at Duncan Park, Sunday afternoon and evening, with concerts. The following program was rendered: March, "Boys From Home;" Selections from the comic opera, "Angel Face;" Valse, "Hearts and Flowers;" New Jazz Fox Trot, "Oh, Oh! Oh!" Bolero, "Spanish Gayety;" Intermission. March, "More Fraternally;" Selections from "The Bohemian Girl;" Twelfth Street Rag; "Miserere," from "Il Trovatore;" "Star Spangled Banner."

The occasion was enlivened by the enthusiasm of a group of Confederate veterans from Paris, who, after meeting a number of their Fayette comrades, and holding a pow-wow, sent a request to Director Turner Gregg to play "Dixie." The request was willingly complied with, and as the well-known martial air rang out, the enthusiasm of the vets manifested itself in the old-time "rebel yell," much to the amusement of the large crowd of spectators.

About thirty-five from Paris spent the afternoon in Lexington, attending the concert, which they pronounced a musical treat of the highest order.

The concert will be continued at the parks, notwithstanding the protests of Revs. F. McIntyres and G. B. Crawford, pastors of the two churches in the vicinity of Duncan Park, who, as representatives of their congregations, told Commissioner Wood G. Dunlap that the concerts conflicted with their pulpits engagements. The matter was left to a vote of the patrons, and the 1,500 people present voted unanimously to have them continued.

WOMAN AT 60. KICKS HIGH. REDUCES WEIGHT.

Another of the many methods of flesh reduction which crop up from time to time is high kicking. This practice has been seized upon in London, England, by many members of the fair sex and the women's clubs and Turkish baths are giving special facilities to women who are taking up the fad in the hope that their too solid flesh will melt.

In one women's club there is said to be an old lady of 75 years who has succeeded in kicking to a height of five feet one inch. Another because she disturbed people by her gymnastics, said that she had reached four and one-half feet and that she had lost two pounds in weight.

"Thank you, old boy, but we have no place in the house for that 'jug of Hazard moonshine you so kindly offered us.' And thus ended one of the biggest lies ever written in an imaginary letter.

REPUBLICAN TICKET SEEMS TURNED AROUND

Senator Harding has announced his intention, if elected, to take Governor Coolidge into his most intimate confidence and make him, as it were, a junior member of the firm, thus amending the Constitution by ipse dixit and upsetting the judicious balance of government provided for in that instrument. The distinguished Senator is generally at pains to manifest his great respect for the wisdom of those whom he whimsically refers to as "the founding fathers," but evidently believes they were shortsighted in respect to the place and function that the Vice President should have. It is a shame, says the Senator, whose words being few and seldom are impressive, that the presiding officer in the Senate has not a more active part in the Government. What about the presiding officer in the House, Senator? If we must reform the Government, might it not be just as well to continue holding the President himself responsible, and elect one who can take up and bear the responsibility?

It really is too bad the Republicans got their ticket turned around like they did, but it does not seem wise to change the constitution to accommodate their awkwardness.

THE AGRICULTURAL PLANK

The agricultural plank of the San Francisco platform invites the support of the farmer, not only on the basis of very definite accomplishments in the field of agricultural legislation, during the past eight years, but on a further definite constructive program as well.

It makes for itself an excellent case. By contrast with such generalities of the Chicago platform as "the farmer is the backbone of the nation" and "the crux of the present agricultural condition lies in prices, labor and credit," the Democrats are able to enumerate no less than six important pieces of constructive legislation, that have been passed with the idea of putting agriculture on a better footing. That the last Republican Congress not only failed to add anything to this program, but even interfered seriously with the operation of the Federal Farm Loan act is a matter easy of proof.

In the agricultural northwest the farmers have united to a high degree to protect their own interests. Unfortunate consequences for the country would ensue were an unenlightened agricultural policy to oblige the farmers of the nation to align themselves with the radical elements of the industrial centers.

Increasing farm tenancy and absentee landlordism present a serious agricultural problem. The Wilson administration has acted in a way to check the growth of this unwholesome tendency, and to prevent agriculture from deteriorating into the sad state in which it now finds itself in England. The party now pledges itself to a continuance of the good work. By supplying fertilizers at reasonable costs, by facilitating the co-operative handling of farm products, and by further improving credit facilities more is to be accomplished in the direction of easier acquisition of the land.

KENTUCKY TO BE REPRESENTED.

Mrs. O. J. Chandler, of Harrodsburg, has been chosen to represent Kentucky in the party of thirty women going to Europe from the United States to Christiana, Norway, to attend the International Council of Women which will be held there in September.

Mrs. Chandler is the widow of Orle J. Chandler, formerly of Paris, and was before her marriage Miss Haldon Hardin, prominent in club and civic work.

The party will leave New York, August 7, on the steamship Patria of the Fabre line and return October 17 on the Stavanger, of the Norwegian American line, after being guests of the National Council of Women of Great Britain and Ireland at their annual meeting in Bristol. All the national organizations of women in the country will be represented by these delegates. They will be received by the royalty of the various countries they expect to visit and will travel under the protection of the State Department of the United States Government.

CIVIC FUNDS.

Many progressive towns are not satisfied with what public improvement they may be able to get through the municipal government and taxation. They raise funds by subscription campaigns with which to put over projects for which the mass of the tax payers are not ready.

In Middletown, Ohio, for instance, they have raised a fund of $1,030,000. This will be applied to such causes as the local hospital, parks and play-grounds, Girls' Club, library, Community building, Y. M. C. A. building, etc.

Middletown has a population of 25,000, so its people gave at the rate of $40.00 per capita. It would be possible to realize dreams heretofore regarded as impossible, if here in Paris the people would contribute an average of $40.00 each for civic causes.

The State of Illinois has one motor vehicle for every 45 yards of its vast network of rail lines.

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Many Paris People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Ills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding? These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Paris people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

Chas. Stewart, tinsmith, Lilleson avenue, Paris, says: "I have had three or four attacks of lumbago in the past few years, the first being the worst. There was a constant, dull ache in my back all the time and often sharp, cutting pains darted through it. It sometimes seemed as though I could hardly endure the misery. I tried different remedies with no good results. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and produced them from the Ardery Drug Co. The first box helped me and I continued taking them until cured. Attacks since then have always been slight. Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stewart had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

TO ANNOUNCE GENERAL CENSUS IN SEPTEMBER.

The total population of the United States will be announced about September 1, according to a statement given out by Dr. Joseph A. Hill, chief statistician of the Census Bureau. He said that during the intervening period population figures for all towns, cities, counties and States in the country will be made public. The agricultural census will not be completed until after the population census, while the census of manufactures will follow that of agriculture.

The bureau has decided that detailed statistics covering the number of persons of different nationalities residing in the United States will not be made public until next year.

BUSINESS GOOD!

All industries increased the total amount of their payrolls for June, 1920, as compared with June, 1919, according to statistics made public by the Department of Labor, at Washington. In ten out of thirteen selected manufacturing industries, there also were increases in the number of persons employed, the figures showed.

It's either Bryan or Billy Sunday to head the Prohibition ticket, announces an authority. We'll wager that it will not be Bryan who will take the stump for the Democratic party late in the fall.

PASTORS LIKE ARMY: ESCAPE OLD MAIDS.

Episcopal ministers who have served as temporary chaplains in the army and who seek to be made permanent chaplains were up for examination at army headquarters. One of these ministers when asked why he wanted to be a chaplain instead of a rector of a church replied:

"There are several reasons. A chaplain in the army is free to do what work he thinks best. He is not beset by a lot of old maids in his parish who are all the time making life miserable for him when he cannot follow out their church plans."

YOU KNOW THIS FELLOW

I'm the guy who visits your home over the week-end and upsets the whole household establishment. I get up in the morning when I feel like it and if I keep you waiting at breakfast for me it doesn't annoy me in the least.

I expect you to entertain me the best you know how and as long as I don't get tired I should worry how much I keep you trotting around with me.

And if I don't want to retire until after midnight, I expect you to sit up with me and keep me company. I'm your guest, you know, at your own invitation.

You shouldn't expect me to fall into your ways—you must accommodate yourself to mine. I consider your home mine while I'm in it and I propose to take advantage of the opportunity.

If I don't like the plans you've made for my visit, I'll say so and have you make new ones that suit me better. If I don't like what you give me to eat I'll manage to let you know. It may embarrass you, but I'm fussy and always look out for number one. It's a great life if you know how to week-end to advantage.

BE CAREFUL.

SPEAK UP, GENTLEMEN!

(Cincinnati Times-Star)
Three per cent. of alcohol exists in ripe buttermilk, declares the State chemist of Delaware. Now what do you know about that? At one fell thrust, our supreme faith in the integrity of the family cow is destroyed. She stands before us charged with having been, all through the ages, a potential boot-legger. Never can we look her in the face again without suspecting her docility to be duplicity, her sincerity, subtlety.

The State chemist of Delaware further declares that every vendor of ripe buttermilk is liable to prosecution. What is true of Delaware is, of course, true of Ohio. Therefore the abandonment of the work-house may have been somewhat premature. We may even have to build huge additions. What, with the early morning milkman, the disconsolate barkeep, the dairyman and the housewife, all of them in varying degrees vendors of buttermilk, no limbo now in existence will be ample enough to accommodate all the violators of the law.

Politically, the disclosure of the nefarious nature of buttermilk will have important consequences. As questionnaires are the fashion during this campaign, we demand to know whether William J. Bryan and Billy Sunday are consumers of this intoxicating beverage. If they are so, they are not fit to head the Prohibition ticket. No sincere "dry" for a moment could think of voting for men who hide such depraved appetites under the cloak of smug hypocrisy.

WHY CITIES GROW

Two items of news from Henderson supplement and complement one other. We are told, on the one hand, that the decennial growth is a paltry matter of 700 or so, and we read, on the other, that the Ministerial Association is more than ever determined in its fight against Sunday movies.

Into the legal aspects of the controversy we do not propose to enter. We are concerned only with the narrow spirit, the obstinate intolerance, the lack of vision of these ministers who see their congregations dwindling, a condition by no means confined to Henderson, and have no remedy to offer, save, in a manner of speaking, to lock them in. Why not be logical? Why not go all the way? Street cars, soft drinks, newspapers, boat rides, shoe shines, cigars—to say nothing of cigarettes, these do not come under the exception made in favor of the ox miserably fallen into a ditch. They help make life tolerable—therefore away—with them all. If banning these does not fill the churches and crowd the Sunday schools, what's the matter with a truant officer?

Cities grow, among other reasons, in proportion as they look forward, not backward; in proportion as they are pleasantly habitable by most and not merely the sanctuary of a few hard-shelled in their self-content.

BLIND CHILD HEARD SNAKE

A blind child of Mrs. Leonard Peavler, whose husband runs a sawmill in the edge of the knobs, near Mitchellburg, in Mercer county, came to her mother several times and said, "Mother, I hear a snake crawling." Mrs. Peavler reassured her, but the child was persistent in her warning. When Mrs. Peavler went to the kitchen to prepare supper and as she stooped over a flour bin, a rattlesnake dropped from the loft across her hips. She shook it off and the men rushed in and killed it. The reptile had eight rattlers and a button. Its presence showed that the blind child's hearing could detect what others missed.

EXPLANATION OF CHILD LABOR LAW

There seems to be a misunderstanding of the Kentucky Child Labor Law and its provision relating to the employment of children during vacation. The following extract from the State law explains it:

"If you have your own or any other child between 14 and 16 years of age working for you at any time of the year, in, or in connection with a factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, theatre, motion picture or the transmission of merchandise without a permit from the superintendent of schools, you are breaking the child labor law."

"If you have your own or any other child working for you who claims to be past 16 years of age and it is proved that such child is not 16, you have broken the child labor law. The child's appearance, is not proof."

HOT AND COOL DAYS

Friday and Saturday set the mark as the two hottest days of the present summer in this vicinity. Friday afternoon the temperature ranged between 90 and 96, and on Saturday the same ratio was held. The nights were sticky and uncomfortably warm. In 1914 the temperature for the same date was 96, and in 1901 it went to 101. The thermometer in 1919 showed 93.

The hot spell was succeeded Sunday by a cool wave, which continued through yesterday, making the situation more to the relief of sweltering humanity. Hall was reported in some parts of the county, though not heavy enough to do any damage.

AUTOS COLLIDE.

An automobile driven by Frank Parks collided Sunday morning near the corner of Eighth and Main streets, with a machine in which Charles Monson and family were riding. Both machines were slightly damaged, but no one was injured. The Monson machine was forced against a telephone pole.

EDITORIAL FLINGS AT THIS, THAT 'N' TOTHER.

Why not start a bathing suit movement for these warm days instead of fostering the overall movement?

A Paris business man says that one who has ever doped the shimmy dance can get a pretty good imitation of it by riding over the holes in Main street, between Sixth and Seventh.

One-piece bathing suits have been passed by the censors. If they were to become the style here, the business of Paris opticians would be overworked.

When a Paris girl plays a ragtime so that it sounds like a funeral march it may be truthfully said that she is murdering the music.

The girls of Paris, Ky., may be interested in knowing that in Paris, France, they're making dresses out of paper. And right now paper is just about short enough to make a modern skirt.

FIRE DESTROYS STOCK BARN AND CONTENTS.

Fire Thursday night destroyed the stock barn of the Lexington Ice Company on London avenue and twenty-mules that were trapped in it. Although the barn was quickly consumed, the hay was smouldering and had to be closely watched. W. G. Stuck, superintendent of distribution for the Lexington Ice Company, estimated the loss at between $17,000 and $20,000. He stated he was of the opinion the loss was fully covered by insurance.

Spontaneous combustion is thought to have caused the fire, which started in some new hay that had been placed in the stable part of the barn. In addition to the barn and the stock, sixteen sets of harness, fifty bushels of oats, ten tons of hay and a wagon were burned.

LIGHTNING FIRES BARN AND ITS CONTENTS

A large barn on the farm of Fount Whitaker, near Newby, Madison county, was struck by lightning, during a storm and burned to the ground. A large quantity of grain and feed was stored in the building, which was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,500, with $500 insurance.

VISITS HER OLD HOME IN BOURBON.

(Contributed.) Mrs. Carrie B. Bryant, her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Willard Huffman and Miss Helen Gould Huffman, Mrs. B. N. Shropshire and great-granddaughter, little Virginia Bedford Shropshire, all of Scott county, motored to the old homestead where Mrs. Pryor was born and raised, six miles from Paris on the Winchester road, now owned by Joseph Clay.

Mrs. Pryor, who is enjoying excellent health for one at the advanced age of eighty-eight, roamed about the old place, thinking of the well-remembered forms and faces who used to greet her with words of welcome, but who have long since been sleeping the sleep that knows no waking, in the old family graveyard just over the hill from the house, and many were the remembrances called to memory of a by-gone day, when little barefoot youngsters romped on the lawn and quenched their thirst at "the old oaken bucket which hung in the well."

Mrs. Pryor is the daughter of Littleberry Bedford, Sr., one of Bourbon county's most esteemed citizens, who died forty years ago. She and her brother, Webster C. Bedford, of Missouri, are the only remaining members of a large family. Mrs. Pryor, though she has been absent from the old place fifty-eight years, says pleasant memories of this visit will linger with her as long as life shall last.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS

Concrete pavements are in process of construction in front of the residences of A. B. Hancock and Mrs. Kate Mann, on Pleasant street. The resurfacing work on Fifth street, between High and Main streets, has been completed, and a heavy coating of tarvia has been applied. This will insure a dust proof street in that vicinity.
The rebuilding of Pleasant street, with concrete, from Seventh to Second, which has been under way for several weeks, has been completed. The street from Duncan avenue to Fourth, has been opened for traffic. The completion of this work gives a fine thoroughfare from Twelfth to Second, guaranteed to withstand the heaviest traffic. The work of reconstructing High street remains to be carried out in the scheme of improvement.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP

That the volume of business in the city and county continues good was evidenced by the fact that up to last Thursday the bank clearings reported from three Paris banks aggregated the sum of $981,771.42. The rapid shipments of livestock is putting large sums of money in the banks. Larger sums are being paid out by farmers for labor employed on the farms, and in the city the employees on street improvements and other industries help to swell the weekly payrolls.

The Liggett-Myers Co., operating a big redrying plant in this city, will double its capacity by installing additional machinery, which is now being assembled. The company will also erect a new storage warehouse with a capacity of five thousand hogheads. A new redrying machine is to be installed by the G. O. Tuck Company. Merchants are somewhat handicapped by their inability to get shipments of goods. With the large amount of money being put in circulation in the different industries and by farmers in payment of wages, the business of Paris looks promising. Collections are reported as being much better than for some time past.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PICNIC.

In another part of this issue of THE NEWS will be found a large display advertisement telling of the many features to be presented to the public at a picnic to be held near Paris, by the members of P. I. McCarthy Council, Knights of Columbus, of Paris, on Wednesday, August 4.

The picnic will be one of the old-fashioned kind, where everybody will find entertainment and amusement to their heart's content. It will be given in the woodland of D. G. Taylor, on the Paris and Lexington pike, opposite the former site of the Paris Fair. One of the principal features of the day will be the music, which be furnished by the famous Mcysville Boys' Band of thirty pieces. This organization was heard here in concert at the Grand Opera House some months ago in one of the Red Cross drives, and needs no introduction to our music-lovers.

The program will consist of the band concerts, dancing, foot races, sack races, egg and spoon races, potato races, pie-eating contests and many other forms of entertainment. Children twelve years and under will be admitted free. The proceeds will be used for charitable purposes.

BLACKBERRIES ON MARKET

The juicy and tempting blackberry is coming on the Paris market, with $1.50 per bucket asked by the retailers, an advance of about 400 per cent. over the old-time price when they were plentiful at twenty-five cents per bucket. Sugar has advanced in about the same proportion so that blackberry jam, if there be such a thing this year, will come out of sight. Many housewives are waiting for the berries to become more plentiful, and the prices to drop somewhat, hoping to be able to can goodly quantities of the fruit, and, in spite of the high cost of sugar, to put aside a few jars of jelly. In the mountain counties the berries are plentiful and finding a ready sale at thirty-five to fifty cents a gallon.

COAL SUPPLY WILL LAST 6,500 YEARS.

There will be enough coal in the United States to supply the demand for at least 6,500 years, even if the present rate of consumption is doubled, in the opinion of State and Government inspectors attending the eleventh annual convention of the Mine Inspectors' Institute of America, at Cleveland, O.

"The hard coal will give out, as there is not 150 years' supply in sight," J. W. Paul, chief coal mining engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines, said, "but the soft coal is almost inexhaustible."

ADVOCATES GASOLINE TAX FOR STREET REPAIRS

A suggestion that the city should impose a tax of one cent a gallon on gasoline, in order to raise a fund for repairing Main street, and freeing it from the chug-holes that now mar it, has been made to THE NEWS by a former Paris man now residing in California. He has been reading THE NEWS' comments on the situation here, and states that such a tax has been imposed in San Diego and other California cities, and is proving very satisfactory. The motorists have all taken very kindly to it, and the owners of the big trucks, whose machines help to wear the surface of the streets, have been willing to bear their share of the burden.

Our California friend says: "Judging from what I have been reading in THE NEWS the streets of Paris, or at least Main street, of blessed memory to me, must be in a state comparable only to some of the old dirt roads over which I used to travel in Bourbon county. I can well remember back in the old days, when that street was a series of ruts and holes, the city would get busy just before the convening of the grand jury, and mass the city forces, among whom I recall my old friends, John Brannon, Mike Murray, Jeff McClain, and others, and macadamize Main street. Then it would be allowed to drop back to its former state until the next grand jury was about due. Then the same proceeding would take place. But it seems to me that in these modern days there would be enough civic pride in Paris to keep the main thoroughfare in a presentable condition. I see in a recent issue of THE NEWS that a Commercial Club has been organized in Paris. Well, there should be enough strong and active business men in that organization to force the city to repair the streets."

NO FREE LIST.

A traveling entertainer, says the Argonaut, was very proud of possessing a genuine Stradivarius violin, and so informed the editor of the local paper of the town in which he gave one of his concerts. But the report of the concert the next morning did not mention the Stradivarius violin, and the entertainer hastened to tell the editor of his disappointment.

"If old Stradivarius expects any advertising in the columns of this paper," the editor replied, "he will pay ten cents a line for it."

YOU KNOW THIS FELLOW!

I'm the guy who celebrates a sweltering summer day by telling everybody I meet, show 'em my wilted collar, mop my face with my handkerchief, tell 'em what the thermometer at the corner drug store registers, and explain how near I've come to sunstroke.

Of course, when I meet someone who has managed to keep cool by keeping his mind from the heat, I don't expect sympathy. They simply get my goat and I don't want to leave 'em until I've got 'em going.

I've got the temperature records of every hot day for the past fifty years, and I spring as many as I can remember, and then say "but today's the worst I ever experienced." Then I tell 'em, too, how warm they look and then if they argue, they get all heated up anyway.

WHERE PROFITEERING EXISTS.

In the indignation felt by the people against profiteering, they should remember one thing, which is that exorbitant prices are most commonly charged on luxuries. When you hear of a shoe merchant charging 100 per cent more than he paid for an article, it is probably on some article made to appeal to people of wealth. The feeling exists that those people can afford to pay high, that they demand an excessive degree of perfection, and are perfectly willing to pay almost any price to get it.

There is some fallacy in that point of view. Yet the people who pay fancy prices are not entitled to any great amount of sympathy. They can dodge unreasonable prices by buying the ordinary run of goods at advertised stores.

KENTUCKIAN OLDEST EMPLOYEE OF U. S. GOVERNMENT

Captain Stephen S. Cole, 94, of Camp Nelson, Ky., who won the prize at the American Legion celebration, in Lexington, for being the oldest veteran present, is a veteran of three wars—the Indian, Mexican and Civil War, and is said to be the oldest employee of the United States Government. He is more than six feet tall, straight as an Indian and weighs 175 pounds. He walks without a cane and is able to read the newspapers without the aid of glasses. Shooting is his favorite sport and he is a crack shot. Capt. Cole is the custodian of the National Cemetery at Camp Nelson, Jessamine county. He is proud of the fact that he was once a neighbor of Gen. Zachary Taylor, served with the cavalry of Gen. John C. Fremont in California and was the personal friend of Abraham Lincoln. For gallantry at Vicksburg he was offered a promotion, but refused it to remain with his command.

Buick Valve-In-Head Success

The Buick Valve-In-Head motor car's sales record each season is a good example of the confidence and prestige that the world's buyers have placed in Buick quality and manufacture.

The famous Buick policies and principles of twenty years ago still remain intact in Buick construction. They have stood the test of years of constant operation. Naturally the quality, endurance and economy which has been so essential to over five hundred thousand Buick owners in the past is now eagerly sought for by thousands of future motor car purchasers.

Today the Buick Valve-In-Head built by the pioneer builders of Valve-In-Head motor cars stand pre-eminently before the entire motor car field as "first choice" among motor car buyers.

Suppose You Had to Rebuild Every 14 Years?

If you knew that most everything in your house had to be rebuilt every 14 years you would—if you were wise—lay aside one-fourteenth of the cost every year, to be used in replacing the stairs, windows and other parts when they wore out.

If you were renting that house to someone else, you would have to charge enough rent to provide that one-fourteenth a year, besides taxes, insurance, current or temporary repairs and interest.

That is exactly what the telephone company must do if it is to stay in business permanently—charge enough for its service to provide each year's quota of this rebuilding money, besides all other expenses.

That constant wearing out is "depreciation", and the annual quota to meet it is the "depreciation reserve"—and it is just as necessary as the wages for the company's employees!

GOV. COX FRIENDLY TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Comparison of the records of Governor Cox, Democratic Presidential candidate, and Senator Harding, Republican nominee, on the matter of woman suffrage, is made by the National Woman's party in a statement issued recently.

According to the suffragists, Mr. Harding's record was "varied, evasive and noncommittal," until the autumn of 1919, when he voted for the Federal amendment. His suffrage record since that time indicates that he has been lukewarm on the subject. Complaint is made by suffrage leaders that the Republican nominee has refused to take a "decisive stand" on the question since his nomination.

On the other hand, Mr. Cox is declared to have "shown a favorable attitude from the first." Suffragists say that the Governor has been willing to meet their suggestions and that he has shown "marked interest" in the Federal amendment. Duplications "have always been assured of his support" when the resolution should come up in the Ohio Legislature, the women assert.

The comparison of the records was compiled by the Legislative Department of the National Woman's party.

THE UNJAZZED WORLD

Who says the world is not getting better? A dealer in music and musical instruments predicts the downfall of the jazz, and says that the slide trombone and other long-winded instruments which have tortured the public ear for the last few years are giving way before demands for the guitar and mandolin and the type of song which can be sung by them.

It seems too good to be true, but who should know if not the dealer? Of course, when he goes on to predict a revival of the harp, it gets more difficult to believe—that would be too heavenly. But if the guitar can supersede the trombone, and the Swanee River crowd out Dardanella, why the price of sugar can come down and rents go back to normal. If jazz of one kind is out, surely the others are on the way. Heaven speed the unjazzed world!

SWITCHMAN GIVES FACTS TO PUBLIC

Was Going Down Hill So Fast He Became Alarmed—Lost Forty Pounds in Six Weeks

The best proof I can give that Tanlac was the right medicine for me is the way it has relieved my suffering and is building me up," said James H. Johnson, for ten years a switchman for the K. & I. Railroad, living at 1725 Crap street, Louisville, Ky., a few days ago.

"Yes, sir, I was in an awful fix with my stomach all out of order and my kidneys worrying me day and night. I had to be careful about what I ate and often I was so nauseated I couldn't retain a thing on my stomach. I would bloat all up with sour gas and I had the worst sort of gnawing pains in my stomach. My kidneys bothered me continually and what little sleep I did manage to get was so restless I hardly knew I had ever been to bed at all. I actually fell off forty pounds in six weeks time and was going down hill so fast it alarmed me. I tried everything anybody told me, but I got worse instead of better, and I was about ready to give up in despair.

"But one day I saw where a railroad man who was suffering like I was had tried Tanlac and was well pleased with it, so I began taking it and it gave me the finest kind of appetite. Then the indigestion left me and I started picking up in weight. And now in little more than a month's time I have already gained back fifteen pounds of my lost weight and I am still gaining right along. My kidneys don't bother me any more and I can sleep like a top all night long. I am feeling fine and the way Tanlac has built me up is nothing short of remarkable."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at the People's Pharmacy.

SCHOOL TO BE HELD FOR ATTENDANCE OFFICERS.

There will be held at the University of Kentucky for a period of two weeks beginning August 2, 1920, a school for attendance officers. These officers are provided in each county by recent act of the Legislature for the purpose of enforcing the compulsory attendance law. State Superintendent George Colvin is arranging for all county superintendents and attendance officers in each county to attend. The American Red Cross is co-operating in the work and the school is under the joint auspices of the State Superintendent of Schools, the American Red Cross and the University of Kentucky.

There will be lectures presented twice a day during the entire two weeks. The list of speakers has not been fully made out, but a suggested list has been prepared.

The authorities in charge of the school believe that a new day has arrived for compulsory education in Kentucky. Uniformity in the enforcement of the law will be stressed. Kentucky has a compulsory attendance law with the teeth in it if it is correctly interpreted and rightly enforced. The reasons therefore for bringing county superintendents and attendance officers together are very evident.

ARSENATE OF LEAD WILL KILL TOBACCO WORM

Arsenate of lead is a deadly poison for the tobacco worm, which has already made its appearance this year, and should be treated immediately. Unlike Paris Green the lead is safe and effective and not disagreeable to handle.

Arsenate of lead controls the work satisfactorily and is preferred to Paris Green, which has in the past been the favorite insecticide. The lead sticks to the tobacco leaf longer and rarely causes any burning of the plant even when used to excess and causes very little irritation to the skin of the one who is brushing it on the plant. It is safe and effective in rainy weather. It should be applied at a rate of 3½ pounds an acre in powdered form and should be put on with a dust gun that is large enough to make air force so strong that the lead will stick to the leaf. A dust gun with a small fan wastes the insecticide. The plants should be dusted when there is not a breeze and when the dew is on the plant. A good hand can dust ten acres of tobacco plants a day.

Her Nice Neighborhood.

Bernice, aged six years, had just started to school and was in the first grade. She also was very proud because of her progress. I recently visited her home and asked her mother if I could take her for a stroll in the park. While walking along a little boy about her size passed us, at the same time giving Bernice a friendly smile, who returned it, saying to me: "Aunt Jane, don't you think he's a nice neighborhood?"—Exchange.

Mark Twain's Dire Threats.

When Mark Twain wrote "Huckleberry Finn" he penned this introduction: "Persons attempting to find a motive in this narrative will be prosecuted; persons attempting to find a moral in it will be banished; persons attempting to find a plot in it will be shot."

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS

Never before in the history of business was advertising so informative as now. Originally advertisements were routine kind of notices, in which the seller of merchandise reminded the public of his existence, and handed out vague promises about his goods.

Then for a time there was a tendency to write advertisements that tried to be funny and smart, and attract attention by their cleverness, without giving much information about goods.

The modern ad writer has come down to brass tacks. He tries to tell people in a straightforward way what he has to sell. He describes his line of goods, his styles, and particularly his prices. As a result the buyer can get a very intelligent idea of the state of the market, before he enters any store or looks at any goods.

This is the way any skilled buyer goes to work. The purchasing agent of a business concern would not attempt to make any contracts until he had looked over his trade papers and found out what were the tendencies in the market, what styles were favored, and what prices were being offered. Armed with a careful study of market conditions, he is ready to do business, and can make better trades than the man who took no pains to inform himself.

The newspaper advertising offers to the household and personal buyer the same service that the trade paper and the market report provide to the corporation purchasing agent. After a study of newspaper advertising, the buyer for the home gains a better idea what should be paid for any article.

The careful student of home store advertising should be able to buy 10 to 20 per cent. cheaper than the person who pays no attention to the store news.

THE LEADER ASKS INJUNCTION AGAINST TAX COLLECTION

The Lexington Leader company in a suit filed in Circuit Court, at Lexington, asks that the city of Lexington be prevented from collecting taxes on the machinery, products of materials, on the grounds that it is a manufacturing company. The suit asks that a permanent injunction be issued by the court against the city to prevent such taxes from being collected.

The Leader in its suit declares that the issuing of a newspaper is a manufacturing business and details the processes necessary to issue a daily paper. The petition declares that the city, over protest, has attempted to levy taxes on the company and assess the machinery and materials, and has listed them for taxation at $21,300 for 1917, $21,500 for 1918 and the same figure for 1919. The company declares that it rendered a full account of its other taxable property and asks that the city be restrained from proceeding further along the present lines. R. C. Stoll is attorney for the plaintiff.

HANDS THEM A STINGING WALLOP.

The paragrapher of the Louisville Courier-Journal needn't go to a fireworks store for a display. In his own cranium there is a store of verbal explosives, judging by the following extract from a recent issue of the C-J:

"Still they plunge through the streets, trucks with mufflers opened as wide as the span from Jupiter to Mars—juggernauts of din and damnation, earthquakes on wheels, shatters of human nerves, madhouses of roar and tumult, all manned by monsters in human form, conscienceless archdemons of battle, murder and sudden death! Still they snort through the streets, but the police, poor fellows, are deaf and dumb, and so a blessed law against them dies of neglect and inanition!"

Olympic Games.

The origin of the Olympic games is lost in antiquity. The official list of victors begins with Coroebus, who won the foot race in 776 B. C. They were celebrated every four years and were at their height in the fifth and fourth centuries B. C. The games continued until 394 A. D., when they were suppressed by Emperor Theodosius. The modern series of Olympic games began in Athens in 1896.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the "peoples car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one of the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. Let us have your order for one now to avoid delay in delivery.

STATE POSTMASTERS' CONVENTION.

Postmaster J. Walter Payne has received the following letter from Mr. C. A. Bell, of Bedford, Ky., President of the Kentucky branch of the National League of Postmasters of the United States:

"The State Convention of the National League of Postmasters, will be held at Hotel Henry Watterson, Louisville, Ky., on August 9 and 10, 1920. This is to the best convention in our history, both in interest and attendance. An excellent program is being arranged.

"No doubt you have learned of the report of the Joint Commission, on salary adjustment, which is a disappointment to Postmasters, and if the fight is continued, we shall have no trouble in convincing Congress that we have not been allowed enough. Therefore, the fight has just begun, and will be continued until the Postmasters are given what they are justly entitled to receive. If you are interested in the cause, and have a desire to help yourself, and at the same time assist the other fellow, you will lay this letter down, and at once remit your dues to your State Secretary, become a member of the League in helping you.

Very Sincerely,
"C. A. BELL, President."

APPROPRIATED A MEXICAN

A recent issue of the Frankfort State Journal has the following:

"Hon. Denis Dundon, of Paris, was a caller on local officers. Mr. Dundon tells a good story about a Mexican who had been brought into Bourbon county to do a special work. He had a tag on his arm, and written directions, but being unable to speak English, inquired his way by making signs. The Mexican was taken charge of by a farmer in need of labor and put to work. Litigation was about to be threatened when the matter was adjusted by sending the Mexican to the address to which he was intended."
